Crazy Legs Productions Launches Feature Film Division

Ozark*'s Brooke Butler, Vampire Diaries' Teressa Liane, Eye Candy's Ryan Cooper Set to Star in First Project Under New Film Banner

Crazy Legs Productions, a leading producer of reality, true crime, sports programming, and branded entertainment, has launched a new narrative feature film division, Crazy Legs Features. The company has plans to release between four and six films for theatrical and digital distribution per year. Crazy Legs Features is already in pre-production on several projects, with its first film, Front Row Killer, beginning principal photography today. The female-driven thriller will star Brooke Butler (Ozark), Teressa Liane (Vampire Diaries and Into the Badlands), and Ryan Cooper (Eye Candy). Front Row Killer also marks the feature directorial debut of Marguerite Henry (Her Dark Past and Seduced), who serves as a writer on the project.

"We've proven ourselves as innovators and creative storytellers in the non-fiction and branded entertainment spaces," said Scott Thigpen, Crazy Legs Productions COO and Producer of Front Row Killer. "Now, we're excited to bring our cinematic sensibilities to the big screen and to new audiences around the globe."

Marie Halliday, Crazy Legs Production's Director of Feature Development, will oversee the creation of original content and acquisitions of unique creative properties. Halliday says, "We are thrilled to have a diverse feature development slate that includes every genre—from thriller and romance to horror and documentary films—all with our signature "crazy good" storytelling."

Crazy Legs Features' first film, Front Row Killer, is a female-led, music-centric thriller that puts the audience front row center in a tortuous tale of friendship, obsession, and fanaticism. The movie is Swimfan meets A Star is Born and asks the question, 'When a friend stands in between you and your ambitions, how far are you willing to go to make your dreams come true?' Front Row Killer is being shot in and around Atlanta, Ga.
